

Call for Programs

Kappa Epsilon invites you to add to the conversation and engage with your peers and students at the 55th National Convention. Convention programs and activities will emphasize “Feeling Seen” with special focus on authentic leadership, professional development, and genuine connections to The Bond.

Joining us as a Convention presenter is an opportunity to advance the profession of pharmacy, share your expertise with up-and-coming pharmacy professionals, and increase the visibility of your institution or company.

All sessions will be in-person May 29 – 31, 2025 in Lexington, KY, USA. This year’s event will not include a virtual component.

Who Should Submit

- Members who are interested in honing their facilitation skills, sharing their expertise, and advancing the pharmacy field.

Suggested Topics

- Mission trip & community service
- Incorporating AI into your work
- Servant leadership
- Disease state management
- Patient safety
- HIV/Aids
- Immunization

How Do I Submit a Proposal?

The proposal includes:

- A basic form includes session title, actionable takeaways, as well as presenters’ names, titles, and affiliations.

- Description (400 words max). This will be a main point of focus of the committee during evaluation.
- Learning Objectives
- General Outline

Complete the Proposal Form here.

How Are Proposals Selected?

Proposals are peer-reviewed and selected by the Convention planning committee with a primary responsibility to curate high-quality CE content. The review committee places a strong emphasis on ensuring that the slate of selected proposals and presenters represent the diversity of the pharmacy professionals.

The committee evaluates the quality of submissions based on the following criteria:

- Relevant to current needs and interests of attendees
- Potential for audience engagement
- Practical application of material
- Content well-aligned with audience expertise

Deadlines for Accepted Submissions

- Call for proposal submission deadline: January 31, 2025
- Decisions sent: Week of February 17
- Finalization of speaker(s) biography and photo and presentation abstract: February 28, 2025
- Finalization of who is speaking at the event: February 21, 2025
- Final presentation & handout submitted: March 26, 2025
- Additional deadlines will be shared in speaker communication in March 2025

A few important points:

- Presenters should leave time for Q&A.
- Presenters will provide an electronic resource for participants. This can be the presentation itself, a text summary of the session's key points, or a useful tool such as a checklist or collection of best practices.
- Presentations can include more than one presenter.
- You may submit more than one proposal. All will be considered.
- Selected presentations will be scheduled in the agenda at the discretion of the Convention organizers.
- Submission of a Convention Presenter Proposal does not guarantee your selection.

Thank you for supporting Kappa Epsilon's educational mission with your presentation ideas!