The BOND

FALL 2010

President's Corner...

Dear Members and Friends of Kappa Epsilon,

Welcome to the first electronic-only version of The Bond! In an effort to "go green" and to combat increased costs, Grand Council has made the decision to discontinue the printed version of this publication and to take The Bond in a new and exciting direction with a new publisher! In September 2010, Kappa Epsilon teamed with Network Media Partners, Baltimore, MD, to redesign our magazine. Stay tuned for exciting, upcoming changes to The Bond!

Grand Council met for our Mid Year Meeting from July 23-25, 2010 in Kansas City, MO. We worked hard to conduct Fraternity business and truly enjoyed one another's company. You can read more about details from our meeting in this issue!

Elizabeth Kort, Grand Council President

It's hard to believe that a new semester is underway and that we're already half way through the 2009-2011 biennium! A year ago, we decided to challenge ourselves: to honor and uphold the commitment we made to the Fraternity upon our initiation. Ask yourself this question: How many members of your graduating class are still active members of KE? How many of them attended the last National Convention in Indianapolis? If you said zero, I challenge you to reach out to your old friends and fellow chapter members through your college/university, social networking sites, or an old-fashioned letter to invite them to actively participate in our organization this biennium! Direct them to our website, www.kappaepsilon.org to update their information, see the amazing things that are happening with KE today, and pay their national dues or make a donation to the Fraternity or Foundation. Additionally, what better way to catch up with a group of old friends than by meeting in Phoenix this summer for a desert retreat at our National Convention? Pack your sunscreen and make your appointment at the spa... I hope that you're as excited as I am for our upcoming Convention! The 48th National Convention of Kappa Epsilon will be held at the Arizona Biltmore Resort and Spa from July 20-23, 2011. This is sure to be a productive, fun meeting and a relaxing retreat for all! Keep an eye out for further details and registration information... this is an event that you will truly not want to miss!

On behalf of your 2009-2011 Grand Council, best wishes for a safe, fun, and productive semester and a blessed holiday season. We look forward to seeing you in Phoenix in July!

In the Bond,

Elizabeth Kort, Grand Council President

Kappa Epsilon's Midterm Grand Council Meeting July 2010

The Kappa Epsilon Grand Council of Kappa Epsilon Fraternity met for their Mid Term Meeting from July 23-25, 2010 at the Sheraton Country Club Plaza in Kansas City, Missouri. The event was both productive and fun, as we worked hard to complete important Fraternity business and had a great time together!

Our first day's events and discussion centered on our upcoming National Convention. Mark your calendars: the 48th National Convention of Kappa Epsilon Fraternity will be held from July 20-23, 2011, at the Arizona Biltmore Resort and Spa in Phoenix, AZ!

The group worked hard to plan fun and unique social and networking activities, beneficial workshops for collegiates and alumni, and an overall extraordinary experience on this beautiful property. This will be a fun, relaxing retreat that you won't want to miss!

Our remaining time together was focused on our chapters, discussing our goals for the biennium, celebrating the successes and challenges that arose in our respective offices during the first year of the biennium, and important budgetary concerns. Discussing our collegiate chapters is the most energizing part of our time together, as the great work that our collegiates do never ceases to amaze us! Grand Council also closely examined our biennium goals, which surround the colonization process for inviting new chapters into our organization, continuing alumni outreach and our Chapter Advisor-focused initiative, and working with our Awards Committee to continue to recognize exemplary KE members across the country. We dedicated a significant amount of time examining our Fraternity and Convention budgets, to ensure the continued financial security of our organization despite rising insurance premiums and much needed cost savings initiatives surrounding The Bond. Each one of your elected Grand Council officers and your Executive Director has worked extremely hard to accomplish our goals and serve the Fraternity during the first year of the biennium!

On behalf of the 2009-2011 Kappa Epsilon Grand Council, best wishes for a safe and successful year. We look forward to seeing you at our 48th National Convention, July 20-23, 2011, at the Arizona Biltmore Resort and Spa!

Alumni Cruise 2010

If you've attended a KE convention, then you've heard about the Alumni Cruise. On even-numbered years Kappa Epsilon alumni get together and go on a cruise to some spectacular location. This year it was the Mexican Riviera! The trip started in sunny San Diego with the largest amount of alumni attendance to date. I joined twelve other alumni (and three husbands) onboard the Holland America's ms Oosterdam. We headed to the pool, unpacked in our state rooms, caught up with the major happenings of the year, completed the cruise's safety drill, and then enjoyed our first dinner together. We were finally on our way to Mexico!

The first two days of the cruise were days at sea. This gave me just enough time to peruse the ship, get my bearings, and decide how I wanted to relax. I finally decided to lounge by one of the pools and joined Denise Schultz, Susie Bartlemay, Jane Hammock, Sandy Hughes, Petra Schultz, Gay Dodson, Patty Jehring, Margaret Haehl, Debbie Neupert, Dyan Duff, Linda McElhiney, and Gail Jensen by the lounge chairs and socialized. Various types of entertainment were provided throughout the days by Holland America staff. Our favorite was a "Name that Tune" contest, hosted by a guitar playing singer named Guenther. A group of us formed the team "Drugs-R-Us." We competed with six other groups to name the most tunes and we won!

Next, we were getting into the middle of the cruise and seeing Mexican cities. First was the city of Mazatlan where I explored the city with Petra and her husband, Rick. Our taxi driver was great! He gave us a city tour that you couldn't get with the cruise line. We enjoyed shopping in the gold district, watching the famous cliff divers, visiting the Cathedral, and going to the mountain peak for a panoramic view of Mazatlan. He even took us to an amazing taco stand where you could get the best pulled pork tacos and homemade salsa! In Puerto Vallarta, some of the group went into the Sierra Madre Mountains, others went wine tasting, and I decided to enjoy some of the Pacific Ocean and relax on the beach. Quickly, we were off to Cabo San Lucas where we went snorkeling!

Our last day at sea also meant we ate our final dinner together before we had to pack and go back to the real world. Luckily, this was also the day we would take part in supporting Kappa Epsilon's philanthropy. "On Deck for the Cure" is a walk around the deck of the ship in a mini "Race for the Cure" spin-off. We showed our support by walking 9 laps around the deck.

I'm glad that I had the chance to go on the alumni cruise, get to know amazing alumni, and make lasting memories with them. I encourage all Kappa Epsilon alumni to join us in 2012, the more the merrier! ~Renee Ference (Alpha Phi)

NATIONAL PROJECTS UPDATE

Have you checked out the Kappa Epsilon website recently?

At www.kappaepsilon.org you can find lots of resourceful information including hints and updates on our National Projects.

Pharm-CORP was developed to encourage students interested in the professional of pharmacy to start planning their careers by attending the necessary classes, researching the admissions requirements for colleges of pharmacy, and learning about the various opportunities available for pharmacists. Helpful resources posted to this page include the "Pharm-CORP Guide for Collegiates" that contains information about starting the program, links to pharmacy organizations and career information, key topics to cover, and other helpful hints for a successful project.

Breast Cancer Awareness was adopted as a national project in memory of Linda Rodgers, who developed breast cancer during her term as Grand Council president. All KE members are encouraged to develop or participate in breast cancer awareness and outreach activities. Under the Chapter Management and Forms section, you will find a document highlighting chapters' most recent breast cancer activities can be found on the website. You will also find an "Event Management Form" that will help you document the details of your events. This can help you keep more accurate records and will be very helpful when it is time to write the yearly reports.

If you have any ideas or suggestions that would help other chapter, please email them to the chair of the National Project Committee, Kristin Fish at kgf6c6@mail.umkc.edu, or the Grand Council Secretary, Sal Bottiglieri at Sal.Pharm.D@gmail.com.

Alumna Recommits to KE and Makes a Difference

I was inactive with KE for many years. I decided to recommit to the fraternity as an alumna a few years ago when my children went off to college. Becoming a National Liaison was a great way to get involved, meet people, and feel part of KE again. I enjoy being a liaison because you get to meet people with similar professional and personal interests. Chapters are located across the country in interesting places too! The fraternity was good to me as a college student and it's a good feeling to give something back as an alum.

I just returned from my visitation with Delta chapter as a Kappa Epsilon National Liaison. I had a wonderful time. On my visitations in 2008 and 2010 to the Delta chapter in Missoula, Montana the advisors, the deans, and especially the chapter made me feel very special and welcomed as a KE representative. ~Dyan Duff (Alpha Delta)

KAPPA EPSILON MEMBERS HOME & ABROAD: PSI CHAPTER SPONSORS A STUDENT

The Psi Chapter wanted to extend a helping hand and promote education to students in the Dominican Republic by adopting a child through Solid Rock Missions. We were excited to sponsor Vickeysi, an eight year old girl from San Juan. Nine of our members had the special opportunity to meet Vickeysi, her mother, and sister on a medical mission trip through Ohio Northern University. The visit was an amazing experience. Being able to meet Vickeysi after fundraising and learning small bits about her life over the year is truly rewarding. Vickeysi and her family were grateful for everything Kappa Epsilon is providing and we are already excited to visit her again next year. With $312 per year, Vickeysi is able to attend a much higher quality school in San Juan. She is also provided school supplies for the year and a meal every day. Our hope is to sponsor Vickeysi until she graduates high school. After obtaining a superior education when compared to her village school, Vickeysi will be better equipped to further her education in order to create a better life for herself and her family.

It's a wonderful cause where your chapter makes a direct impact and builds a relationship with the child. There are so many children in the Dominican that need help! If any other chapter or alumni is interested in sponsoring a student through Solid Rock Missions, they can visit <http://solidrockmissions.org> and go to child sponsorship. ~Ashley Tyger (Psi)

Howard University's Alpha Pi Chapter Hosts Breast Cancer Awareness Brunch

"It was about not losing hope," said Joan Oboite, about her triumph over breast cancer. Oboite, who works in radiology and oncology at Howard University Cancer Center, was a featured speaker at the first annual Breast Cancer Awareness Brunch, held on September 25, 2010 in the Blackburn Art Gallery at Howard University.

Jasmine Carpenter, a 3rd year Howard Pharmacy Student and Kappa Epsilon member, envisioned and organized the event. Breast Cancer awareness is a yearly project for her fraternity. Carpenter had a simple but remarkable approach. She decided to organize the brunch to benefit those on a local level. "The Cancer Center is right here at Howard. Why not help Howard?" said Carpenter.

Dr. Daphne Bernard, Assistant Dean and Professor of Howard University School of Pharmacy opened the program with a poem about breast cancer. The featured speakers were three breast cancer survivors, including Oboite, Juone Darko and Jacque Perry. Also, a physician, Dr. Gladys Onojobi, a Howard University Cancer Center specialist, enlightened the audience with risk factors, treatment options, as well as interesting findings concerning breast cancer and race. She explained how some Caucasian women with a family history of breast cancer have become more proactive, by having their breasts removed and reconstructed early. Onojobi, also informed the audience of proper time to perform self-breast examinations, which is ideally once monthly following menstruation.

Historically, African American women have often been diagnosed with more aggressive forms of breast cancer that may not be amenable to current treatment, while others do not seek treatment until the cancer has progressed, due to many factors including less access to health care.

Through this project, Carpenter and Kappa Epsilon are working to impact these issues. The funds raised will go towards providing free mammograms for women that are younger than 40, as there is a need for earlier screening in some patients, and grant monies are not designated to cover that age group. Kappa Epsilon raised the funds through raffles, and ticket sales, and corporate sponsors for the brunch included Rite Aid, and Wal-Mart. Kappa Epsilon will donate at least $1400 to the Howard University Cancer Center. Reprinted with permission from the Alpha Pi Chapter, September 29th, 2010

Collegiate Chapter Updates

Alpha Gamma Chapter University of Mississippi

The Alpha Gamma Chapter has begun another exciting year at the University of Mississippi. Last year, the chapter finished a successful recruitment with thirty-six new members. Concluding Big Sis/Lil Sis week, members celebrated the Halloween season together by making ghost lollipops and taking them to the local Boy's and Girl's Club. We also hosted the annual Halloween party for the pharmacy school which is always a fright! We joined The University of Mississippi in collecting toys for Operation Christmas Child, where we donated shoeboxes stuffed with toys, candy, and toiletries. These items were packaged and sent overseas to underprivileged children.

Finishing off the spring semester of 2010, Kappa Epsilon held its Third Annual Womanless Beauty Pageant. With several male students competing, the student body president Matt Bramuchi took top honors as Pharmacy's School Most Beautiful 2010. All proceeds from the event went to Interfaith Compassion Ministries of Oxford, Mississippi. This is one of our favorite events to do since it brings out a majority of the pharmacy student body. After the beauty pageant, the fraternity joined together with the Kappa Psi fraternity and hosted a "Kappa Karaoke" night. This fall our chapter kicked off recruitment events with a 70's Tie-Dye Party. In September, we partnered working with Oxford Medical Ministries to help dispense free medications to the underprivileged in the Oxford community. We look forward to a fun and exciting year bonding and serving others together. ~Jennie Johnson, Chapter President

Mercer University College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences

We are always looking for ways to distinguish ourselves from the other fraternities on campus during recruitment. This year we focused on a positive, proactive outreach to new pharmacy students. We have made a concerted effort to achieve this. KE set ourselves apart with our "Pharmacy in the City" initiative. We got together to develop a survey for our members to take prior to school starting. The survey reported their favorite restaurants, places to study, salons, how many hours they studied, and how many hours they worked weekly. The information was compiled and incorporated into a newsletter along with a greeting, member list, pictures, and brief description of KE. We printed the newsletters and personally handed them out to the first years during the second week of school.

We also sent the entire school a comprehensive guide to Atlanta that included everything from the best ice-cream, places to go for those students with children, to comedy venues. We really believe in reaching out and letting students know that we are here for them. This makes our organization even more desirable allowing us to get prospective members that are just as passionate as we are! ~Shannon Proctor, Chapter President

Alpha Xi Chapter Florida A&M University

Alpha Xi's Renaissance of Alpha Xi

Greetings Kappa Epsilon! The lovely ladies of the Alpha Xi chapter have been working tirelessly. Last year, we held and participated in quite a few events. In February, we hosted our annual Rose Ball, "Celebrating Women in Pharmacy...and the Renaissance of Alpha Xi." It was a Harlem Renaissance themed affair at Golden Eagle Golf and Country Club. For one night, we were back in Harlem, the year was 1920, and we relived history. We honored our longtime advisor, Dr. Angela Hill, for her lifetime achievements in the profession of pharmacy. The program included a chapter candle tribute to historical women in pharmacy from our chapter and area, a Renaissance spoken word tribute to the achievements of Alpha Xi, and a slide show surprise tribute to the life of our own "Superwoman" Dr. Hill. Additionally, we had a solo performance of the song "Almost There" and the FAMU Fine Arts Society displayed profiles of women around the ballroom and entrance.

We hosted Kappa Epsilon week themed KovEr Girls with such activities as a workout session, karaoke night, church for members, and a beauty session with our own KE cosmetologist. We included a Teacher Appreciation Day where we served a full breakfast to our professors and a Student Appreciation Day where we passed out breakfast bars and water bottles. We also had soulful, jazzful, spoken word night where participants sang, rapped and performed interpretations. Our culminating event was a private Alpha Xi Founders' Day Celebration and brunch.

Throughout the year, we participated in multiple community service drives and events with the Haitian Relief Effort, Tallahassee Homeless Shelter, Girl Scouts and the Salvation Army. We co-sponsored a HIV and AIDS awareness event in the College of Pharmacy. Additionally, we also hosted our annual KE fall tea for young women interested in learning more about our organization. As fundraisers, we sold t-shirts titled "If you like it, then put a label on it" and totes titled "Women Changing the World One Step at aTime."

Alpha Xi's Membership Line

Plans are already underway for an exciting new year. We are currently planning events such as our College of Pharmacy Welcome Back "sKatEs," Etiquette Seminars, a prospective members tea, a PinKE fashion show, PharmCorp presentations with Boys and Girls Club and the Girls Scouts, repainting our trees, cleaning our street, community service activities, the Breast Cancer Seminar, the Ball, KE Week and other exciting events.

~Brittany O. Herring, Chapter President

Alpha Pi Chapter Howard University

Greetings from our Nation's Capital!! We would like to send greetings to all our fellow chapters. We hope that your outlook on this upcoming year is just as promising and expectant as ours. The Alpha Pi chapter plans to have many activities this year that foster brotherhood and excellence in our school and community. We are kicking off the year with a breast cancer awareness brunch in September, an initiative which has been spearheaded by one of our new inductees, Jasmine Carpenter, the current Vice President I for the chapter. Also, in an effort to increase academic excellence in the School of Pharmacy, we have initiated the "KE Study Hall", a mentoring program that assists first and second year students who may have difficulties adjusting to the rigorous schedule of the Pharmacy program. Members of KE are available at designated times in the pharmacy school to assist and encourage interested students. We look forward to the Spring Semester induction, a time to bring promising new members into the KE brotherhood. To learn more about our events, please visit our website www.hualphapi.org. ~Claude Manjo, Chapter President

Beta Theta University of the Incarnate Word

Beta Theta Membership

Beta Theta is proud to announce that our chapter is continuing to grow even stronger as we approach our one year anniversary! Since chartering in December of last year, we have been very busy orchestrating new membership recruitment events and volunteer activities. Last year, we were proud to induct 15 new members increasing our chapter to 37. Last fall, current members and new members got to know each other over the sweet and sticky task of creating candy apples for our Halloween fundraiser. New members channeled their inner child during our visit to the San Antonio Battered Women and Children's Shelter, where we made sock puppets with the children. This activity was such a success, that we will be returning to the shelter with this year's prospective new members group in hopes of making this an annual new member event.

Our chapter set up a booth educating young girls about the role of pharmacists in the community at the Girls Inc. Science Festival. The girls got a brief introduction to pharmacy as they prepared their own Skittle prescription.

The Beta Theta chapter is working hard towards increasing our treasury, chapter involvement, and community outreach. Our goal for our treasury is to fundraise enough money to provide a scholarship to a local high school student with an interest in pursuing a career in pharmacy. We have a lot of fun and exciting social events planned for this semester including a family barbecue and pool party, bowling, and pumpkin carving. To further our involvement in the community, we are participating in two community health-fairs and volunteering at Kids Rock an organized kid's marathon benefiting the Susan G. Komen Foundation. We look forward to creating traditions within our chapter and strengthening the bonds between our members. ~Amanda P. Sampson
